

International Travel Information Day

Want to see the World?

Interested in travel within Guiding?

Want to meet other members of WAGGGS?

Never thought it could happen to You?

You're invited to Lougheed Area's International Travel Information Day Sunday February 8, 2009 1:00pm-3:30pm Lougheed Lodge

In the past two years Lougheed Area Girls and Guiders have been experiencing trips of a lifetime and they want to share their experiences with you. The event is divided into three sessions;

- 1) Hear about their adventures in Mexico, South Africa, Dominica, the Adventure to the Capitals which included Ottawa and Washington DC and the Global Issues Symposium
- 2) Discuss practical tips and information on International Hostelling, Fundraising do's and don'ts, showcasing Canada in other countries, experiencing new cultures etc
- 3) Selected and Independent trips. The girls will hear about the Provincial and National trips that are offered every year, what the application procedures are and costs to travel. Guiders will learn about planning an Independent trip from the recent travellers - where to begin, costs, Safeguide, what worked and what didn't -bring your questions.

This event is open to all Girls, 3rd year Guide age and up as well as all Guiders

Please email Sheila at sdarcy@shaw.ca to register. In subject line put GGC-International Travel Info Day and indicate the number of Girls and Guiders you are registering.
